

Snoqualmie Tribe Vision Statement

We, the Snoqualmie, are proud of our determination, tenacity and our strength. We honor our ancestors, our cultural traditions, and our sacred places. Serving our own as we should all with respect and honor. We acknowledge the great progress we have made toward our goals while recognizing that work remains to be done by healing our land, restoring our spirits and uniting our nation to provide our families with education, health care, and homes.

Church Council of Greater Seattle

Michael Ramos
4 Nickerson St
Seattle, WA 98109
Phone: 206.525.1213 x.3950

Lutheran Public Policy Office

Paul Benz
766 John St Ste B
Seattle, WA 98109
Phone: (206) 464-4133

Washington Association of Churches

David Grothaus
PO Box 95949
Seattle, WA 98145-2949
206.625.9790

An Evening with the Snoqualmie

Celebrating the Sacred Mist

Sunday, May 18, 2008

5-7:00 PM

Seattle First Baptist Church

1111 Harvard Ave – Seattle, WA 98122

(at Seneca St)

Parking available

Lutheran Public Policy Office of Washington and the Church Council of Greater Seattle invite you to enjoy an evening of dinner and fellowship with members of the Snoqualmie Tribe.

Tribal members will share stories of the Falls including an update on the Falls legal status as a Sacred Place.

This will also be a fundraiser to defray legal costs.

RSVP – Church Council of Greater Seattle

206.525.1213

Reservations: $15.00 a person

Or $25.00 for two

Make your tax-deductible contribution checks payable to:

Church Council of Greater Seattle - Snoqualmie

If you cannot attend, please mail check to:

Church Council of Greater Seattle

4 Nickerson St

Seattle, WA 98109

